

March/April 2021 Issue

A NOTE FROM KATHY

Springtime greetings!

I am happy to announce that ESAA life is beginning to return to normal. Since my last President's message, the 2020 Annual Awards Application was uploaded to the Members Only section of the ESAA website. Applications MUST be received by May 31, 2021.

The Annual Oversight Committee selected a new graphic company to produce the 2018/2019 ESAA Annual. The call for materials is being finalized. Watch for the announcement when it is released. As stated previously, we have a committee of ESAA members volunteering to vet all incoming materials and proofread all finished pages prior to publication. Hopefully this will prevent a repeat of the issues encountered with the 2016/2017 book. Once again, the annual will be sent to all ESAA members.

Remembering Marshall Comerer
By Jennifer Strickland

"A true gentleman." "A good, kind-hearted person." "Never EVER said anything bad about anyone." "Enjoyed all dogs but English Setters were his love." These are all things mentioned by friends and family when describing Marshall Comerer, better known to us as Marsh. I had the pleasure of knowing him for 28 years but when recently talking and reminiscing about him, I think it really hit me how special he truly was. For those who didn't have the honor of knowing him, I will try to somehow summarize his life.
